In Berkeley

New Leftist Boss Emerges

BERKELEY (UPI) — Peter Camejo, who speaks in a quiet voice and keeps his hair well trimmed, has emerged as a leader of the new radicals of Berkeley.

Camejo was in the forefront during the recent clashes with Berkeley authorities. He is small, slender, and he needs amplification to address a large crowd.

His backing comes mostly from non-students, mostly from self-professed socialists or anarchists united temporarily for an immediate goal.

Their most recent goal was the closing of Telegraph Avenue in Berkeley for a Fourth of July rally. They forced the Berkeley City Council to listen — and eventually grant their request.

Camejo's group, at first turned down for a permit to close the street, closed it anyway during a rally on the night of June 28. Police broke up the rally and then city authorities declared a curfew that lasted four days.

A total of 134 persons were arrested, 45 were injured on both sides and the clashes between demonstrators and police resulted in considerable property damage, mostly in the form of broken windows.

After 13 hours of argument on July 2 and 3, the City Council finally voted to close off two blocks of Telegraph Avenue. Some 15,000 persons enjoyed a day in the sun without police supervision and without incident.

But nobody supposes that ends things.

This would be out of character for the 28-year-old Camejo, who has been active in unpopular causes for at least eight years. Presently he heads the Young Socialist Alliance.

He has helped in antidraft movements, been an organizer for the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, been deported from Mexico after being arrested in connection with alleged plans to start "guerrilla warfare."

He has also run unsuccessfully for the Berkeley City Council and successfully for election to the student senate of the University of California at Berkeley. He was not allowed to take office in the student senate because he was under suspension for participating in unauthorized rallies during Stop-The-Draft Week in Oakland last fall.

Camejo says he is currently a Socialist candidate for the United States Senate on a platform including:

- A democratic, socialist America.
- Support of the Vietnamese National Liberation Front.
- Black control of the black community.
- Immediate withdrawal of U.S. troops from Vietnam.

The original rally that started all the current trouble in Berkeley was in support of the French student strike.

So Camejo obviously does not confine himself to a single cause at any one time.

(H) INVESTIGATION OF THE NEW LEFT -- There has been a marked increase in recent months of bombings and burnings of public buildings and other acts of terrorism which could logically have been perpetrated by extremist elements of the New Left. New Left leaders have constantly exhorted their followers to abandon their traditional role of "passive dissent" and resort to acts of violence and terrorism as a means of disrupting the defense effort and opposing established authority. Publications of the New Left are replete with articles proposing the bombings of draft boards and other Government installations, and literature containing detailed diagrams and instructions for making incendiary devices has been widely disseminated among New Left groups.

I have been appalled by the reaction of some of our field offices to some of the acts of violence and terrorism which have occurred, such as those which have recently taken place in certain college towns and in some instances on college campuses. While it is recognized that many of these acts do not constitute violations of law within the primary investigative jurisdiction of the Bureau, it is essential, where the strong presumption exists that acts of violence have been perpetrated by New Leftists or other subversive elements under investigation by the Bureau, that every logical effort should be made to resolve through contact with established sources whether these elements are in fact responsible for such acts. Of course, good judgment and extreme caution must be utilized in this connection so as not to convey the impression to the public or other investigative agencies that we are assuming jurisdiction in those instances where there are not facts which would establish FBI jurisdiction.

It cannot be too strongly emphasized that positive results can be achieved only through the development of adequate high quality informants who are in a position to obtain detailed information regarding the activities and future plans of individuals and organizations affiliated with the New Left movement.

When terroristic acts occur which by reason of the target of the act or by reason of the locale would appear to fit into the objectives of or could have been motivated by subversive elements, particularly New Leftists, I expect an immediate and aggressive response from you in the form of alerting and directing all logical sources and informants into activity to determine if subversive groups could have been responsible.

I have reminded you time and again that the militancy of the New Left is escalating daily. Unless you recognize this and move in a more positive manner to identify subversive elements responsible so that appropriate prosecutive action, whether federally or locally initiated, can be taken, this type of activity can be expected to mount in intensity and to spread to college campuses across the country. This must not be allowed to happen and I am going to hold each Special Agent in Charge personally responsible to insure that the Bureau's responsibilities in this area are completely met and fulfilled.

Very truly yours,

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
INTERNAL SECURITY

ReBullets 5/10/68 and 5/23/68.

The above communications advised of the necessity of taking immediate action to expose, disrupt, and otherwise neutralize the activities of the New Left. As a part of this program, you were instructed to remain alert for and to seek specific data depicting the depraved nature and moral looseness of the New Left. You were further instructed to consider ways to use this material in a vigorous and enthusiastic approach to neutralizing them.

Despite these instructions and in the face of mounting evidence of their moral depravity, little evidence has reached the Bureau to indicate field offices are using this information to best advantage.

To make this program more effective in this regard, each office is instructed to be particularly alert for this type of data. Where a student is arrested during a demonstration or his participation in a demonstration is accompanied by the use of or engagement in an obscene display, this information is to be promptly incorporated into an anonymous letter which can be directed to his parents. Where a photograph or other evidence is available to substantiate information in the letter, it should be made a part of the mailing. You should also search for additional ways to bring the student's activities to the attention of his parents. When appropriate, ways should be developed to also get this information into the hands of school authorities and the local press. In this regard you should consider giving the press anonymous advance information concerning planned activity which might be immoral or obscene in nature. Of course all mailings under this program are to receive prior Bureau authority.

It is not the objective of this letter to restrict this program to the above suggested activities. The foregoing is intended to draw your attention to one phase which can be used to our advantage in neutralizing the New Left.

As the current school year commences, it can be expected that the New Left with its antiwar and anti-draft entourage will make every effort to confront college authorities, stifle military recruiting, and frustrate the Selective Service System. Each office will be expected, therefore, to afford this program continuous effective attention in order that no opportunity will be missed to destroy this insidious movement.

U.S. To Prosecute Campus Activists

By EUGENE V. RISHER

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said yesterday that widespread campus disorders are the work not of students but of "militant activists" who will be prosecuted for conspiring to create riots.

"This has gone beyond the pale of student demonstrations," he said. "These are the acts of militants who are entering upon a conspiracy."

In an interview in his Justice Department office, recorded for television, Mitchell pledged all the resources of the FBI and the department "to bring these people to justice."

Mitchell spoke after he and Secretary Robert H. Finch of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare conferred with President Nixon at the White House on the protests that have racked scores of colleges and universities across the country.

The President abandoned immediate plans to issue a statement, promised last week, on college unrest but left it up to Mitchell and Finch instead to speak out.

The President let it be known, however, that he believes the best way to cope with the problem is to make fuller use of existing laws providing for a cutoff of Federal aid money to disruptive elements on U.S. campuses.

That word was relayed by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen and House GOP Leader Gerald R. Ford after they conferred with Nixon. The White House later said "there is a very definite desire on the part of the President to see that those laws are enforced."

An Office of Education spokesman told UPI that one out of every six college students receive Federal aid. Of the 1.5 billion getting government help, the spokesman said 800,000 get direct Federal aid and 750,000 get Federally insured private loans. The cost is $1 billion a year.

Ford said that "the previous administration did not implement the laws Congress passed last year."

Mitchell said his department had been actively investigating the individuals and groups carrying out disruptive campus conduct for some time.

When a case is made, he indicated, the government will prosecute for violation of a law passed by Congress last year forbidding anyone to cross a state line with intent or conspiring to create a riot.

The maximum penalty for such an offense—of which no one has yet been convicted—is five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Asked if student leaders are being investigated, Mitchell replied:

"They're hardly referred to as student leaders. These people are primarily not students. They're militant activists who appear on college campuses. They're not students as such."

White House press secretary Ronald Ziegler, who expressed Nixon's concern over the problem, said he might have something to say about it "at some later date."

SUBJECT: NEW LEFT MOVEMENT - FOREIGN INFLUENCE

There is increasing evidence that the antiwar protest activities of the New Left movement in the United States are following designs promulgated abroad. If not succumbing to direction, the movement is at least following to a considerable degree counsel afforded by representatives of foreign governments or organizations.

In the past year there have been a series of international "peace" conferences, a partial list of which would include:

Hemispheric Conference to End the War in Vietnam,
Montreal, Quebec, Canada, 11/28-12/1/68

The North American Conference of Anti-Imperialist
Youth, Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, 5/7-12/69

RE: NEW LEFT MOVEMENT - FOREIGN INFLUENCE

The common theme at each of these conferences has been condemnation of the United States and denouncement of the U.S. policies, especially as related to Vietnam, but also in other parts of the world. These conferences have without exception called for the United States to immediately and unconditionally withdraw its troops from Vietnam and cease support of the South Vietnamese regime. The conferences have further called for support of the actions of the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam (NLF) and the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV); support of antiwar protest demonstrations and actions in the United States and world-wide; and campaigns against U.S. chemical and biological warfare research and the U.S. ABM system.

At certain of these conferences specific proposals for antiwar actions have been endorsed. These proposals have called for a gathering of signatures of persons opposed to U.S. efforts in Vietnam; publication in newspapers and magazines of these names as well as antiwar articles; sending of letters and telegrams to the President, members of Congress, and other officials calling for U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam; increased resistance to the draft and military services; and support of the NLF/DRV position at the Paris Peace Talks. The Working Group on Action of the Stockholm Conference on Vietnam issued a call for antiwar demonstrations on specific dates: July 4 (U.S. Independence Day); July 20 (Anniversary of the Geneva Accords); and August 6 (Anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki). These proposals have been enthusiastically and energetically carried out by various groups throughout the United States.

U.S. delegations regularly attend these international conferences in numbers varying from 2 to 60. Travel and other expenses are often paid by the conferences or by international groups such as the World Federation of Democratic Youth, the International Union of Students, the Women's International Democratic Federation, and the World Council of Peace. In certain instances expenses have been borne directly by the Soviet government. For instance, [redacted], an activist in the Los Angeles area, traveled on tickets provided him through the Soviet Embassy in Canada after contact there with a known officer of the Soviet KGB.

Activists such as David Dellinger and [redacted] have made a number of trips overseas, including travel to North Vietnam, in the furtherance of their continuing contacts with the North Vietnamese.

Letter to SAC, Albany
RE: NEW LEFT MOVEMENT - FOREIGN INFLUENCE

The Soviet Union as well as communist-bloc countries has been prominently active in these international conferences. At a meeting of the International Liaison Committee of the Stockholm Conference on Vietnam held 10/12-13/69 in Stockholm plans were made for an organizational meeting in the near future to set up world-wide actions in support of the U.S. antiwar movement. At this meeting, attended by Soviet, NLF and DRV representatives, the U.S. representatives were encouraged to promptly plan actions to continue after the major demonstrations scheduled in November, 1969. Plans were also made at this meeting for activities in other countries with U.S. participation.

In addition to the international conferences, there is also a continuing exchange of ideas through international travel on the part of individuals and groups. Numerous individuals and groups from the United States, in addition to attending conferences such as mentioned above, have traveled to all parts of the world for meetings with anti-U.S. groups, and representatives of the Soviet Union or other communist-bloc countries, Communist China, Cuba, and North Vietnam.

The following examples are cited as representative of travel other than to international conferences. A group representing Women's Strike for Peace traveled to the Soviet Union at the invitation of the Soviet Women's Committee in 11/68. En route a meeting was held in Paris with NLF representatives to the Paris Peace Talks. Another WSP group traveled to Cuba in 7/69 where a meeting was held with a group of North Vietnamese women. A group of Young Socialist Alliance members traveled to Cuba in 12/68-1/69. A group including prominent SDS members traveled to Cuba in 7/69. Also, in the Summer of 1969 two groups of members of the Committee of Returned Volunteers traveled to Cuba. In each instance some or all members of the groups traveling to Cuba have had meetings with representatives of the North Vietnamese Embassy and/or the Communist Chinese Embassy. Under the name of "Venceremos Brigade" two groups, 150 each, are being formed to travel to Cuba in 12/69 and 1/70 to assist in the sugar cane harvest. A detailed application in triplicate is being obtained from those seeking participation in this activity. It is not hard to conceive of the information from the applications winding up in the hands of hostile intelligence agencies.

In addition to travel by U.S. citizens to foreign countries for contacts with anti-U.S. militants, etc., there is also, of course, the travel of such individuals to the United States. Cases in point are the tour of dozens of U.S. college campuses by Ernest [] Mandel, prominent European Trotskyists, in late 1968 and the U.S. tour of German revolutionary Karl Deitrich Wolff in early 1969. A delegation of North Vietnamese women traveled to Canada in July, 1969, where meetings were held with numerous U.S. citizens in attendance.

In addition to meetings between U.S. citizens and representatives of foreign governments and organizations, there is, naturally, a regular exchange of correspondence and telegrams. Radio broadcasts from North Vietnam and other countries proclaim support of the antiwar activities in the United States and encourage continuation and acceleration of these activities. New Left publications contain an unending barrage of articles which are nothing short of propaganda in behalf of the North Vietnamese. Individuals who have had meetings with North Vietnamese representatives in Cuba, Europe, or even North Vietnam pour forth a steady stream of speeches and articles castigating the United States and praising the North Vietnamese.

The overall activities described adversely affect U.S. policies and lend comfort and support to the North Vietnamese, the Soviet Union, and other interests opposed to the United States. A pattern of international cooperation emerges, nurtured and supported by foreign as well as domestic groups seeking to undermine the U.S. position, not only on Vietnam but on many fronts--Latin America, NATO, the U.S.-Japan Security Treaty, etc. This is true whether the activities are under the direction and control of foreign elements or whether the activities are undertaken after merely accepting counsel or influence from foreign governments, organizations, or hostile intelligence agencies.

The Bureau is increasingly being called upon by other agencies of the Government, including the White House, to provide information concerning the situations outlined above. Even though these meetings and conferences are held abroad, the continuing participation by U.S. citizens makes it incumbent upon the Bureau to develop all pertinent information concerning events transpiring at these meetings and conferences. In some instances in the past the Bureau has been successful in sending informants and/or sources to these meetings and conferences abroad. Exceedingly valuable intelligence information has been received from these informants and/or sources, some of whom have had private discussions with individuals prominent in these meetings including the North Vietnamese representatives, and others of whom have compiled photo dossiers of those persons in attendance.

It is imperative that increased efforts be made to obtain coverage of these international meetings and conferences if the Bureau is to meet its internal security and intelligence responsibilities. The ideal would be, of course, to have at least one informant or source included in every group traveling to these meetings. If this goal cannot be met, it is essential to develop informants or sources sufficiently close to individuals participating in such international meetings and conferences to develop from these individuals pertinent information.

The above is set forth to emphasize to each office the nature of the situation as it now exists. In the future, when information is received that individuals or groups involved in the New Left contemplate international travel for attendance at conferences or meetings, the Bureau is to be immediately advised. Logical leads are to be set forth for other offices to develop all possible information concerning the proposed travel and to make every feasible effort to obtain coverage of these meetings or conferences by informants and/or sources. In each instance, the Bureau should be furnished at the earliest possible time recommendations for informant/source travel and estimated expense involved.

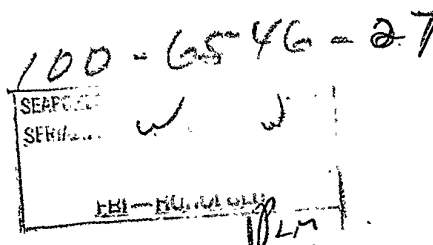

Each SAC will be held personally responsible to insure that every effort is exerted to obtain the vitally essential coverage necessary at future international conferences and meetings as described above.

Each Legat should insure that his sources and liaison contacts are alert to promptly furnish all pertinent information concerning such conferences and meetings.

Active consideration should be given to recommending interview of each person involved in these situations, both to develop necessary information concerning the events and to evaluate potential of these individuals as sources or informants. Cases on the individuals are not to be closed until this consideration has been given and the Bureau advised.

(C) SPEECH MATTERS - NEW LEFT -- As you are aware, speeches on the subject of communism cannot be accepted by Special Agents in Charge, Assistant Special Agents in Charge, or any approved Bureau speaker. This policy should also be followed with reference to speeches on the subject of the New Left. Only in special instances will the New Left be discussed by Seat of Government representatives who have been specifically designated by me to do so.

In the event questions are asked concerning the New Left during any question-and-answer period following a talk given by a Bureau representative on an approved FBI subject, replies should deal only with the question of FBI jurisdiction. Persons asking questions of this type can tactfully be referred to appropriate Bureau reprint material on the subject.

Dissent Reported Heavy on Carrier

By Nadine Wharton
Star-Bulletin Writer

There is "a high degree of dissension aboard the Constellation, and there are men on the ship who will take steps of noncooperation" before the big carrier leaves Honolulu Saturday for Vietnam, a peace worker said today.

James Douglass, an assistant professor of religion at the University of Hawaii, is a leader of Harbor Project II, a nonviolent organization for Hawaii's pro-peace groups.

About 50 Project II members were at the Church of the Crossroads last night to counsel to crewmen from the carrier.

Douglass said about two dozen sailors went to the church last night. None stayed, he said, but all took the peace back to the ship — by inviting men of the Constellation to a meeting at the Church of the Crossroads at 7 p.m. Thursday.

DOUGLASS SAID military counselors and civilian law- enforcement at the Church of the Crossroads from tomorrow night on for "any man from the Constellation who feels that the murder of Asians must stop and that duty to humanity is far more vital than supporting an unconstitutional war in Asia."

He said Harbor Project II will provide shuttle-service transportation to the church from Fort DeRussy.

Douglass said Harbor Project II takes its name from the San Diego group that campaigned for the men of the Constellation to stay home.

NINE OF the 4,400 crewmembers sought for, taking sanctuary in a Roman Catholic church and refusing to board their ship.

They were arrested by U.S. marshals after the ship sailed on charges of being AWOL, attempting to shirk important service and missing a ship's movement.

The day after the ship left San Diego, the men were flown back to the carrier. They were tried at a captain's mast and found guilty of the charges.

Each of the nine was reduced one pay grade, fined a month's pay, and sentenced to 30 days correctional custody aboard the ship.

Douglass said a mock election was conducted in San Diego by David Harris of Non-Violent Action Inc., and that 83 per cent of the 55,000 San Diegans who voted were against sending the Constellation to Indochina.

HARRIS is the husband of singer Joan Baez and the former Stanford University student body president who served a 20-month jail term for refusing his draft call.

Douglass said more of San Diego's electorate voted in the mock election than voted for mayor.

Douglass, a little surprised at how quickly Hawaii's antiwar groups rallied to organize Harbor Project II, said:

"The matter of the Constellation is an outstanding example of the need for non-violent resistance to the oppression of human beings.

"A large number of the men aboard that ship don't want to go offshore of Vietnam and bomb the people of Indochina."

PROJECT II members here are from Catholic Action, Youth Action, and the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, BUT FOR EVERY RESPONSIBLE AMERICAN CITIZEN. DURING THESE YEARS, THERE WERE OVER 300 ARSONS OR ATTEMPTED ARSONS, 14 DESTRUCTIVE BOMBINGS, 9 PERSONS KILLED, AND ALMOST 600 INJURED ON OUR COLLEGE CAMPUSES ALONE. IN THE SCHOOL YEAR 1968-69, DAMAGE OF COLLEGE CAMPUSES EXCEEDED 3 MILLION DOLLARS AND IN THE NEXT YEAR MOUNTED TO AN EXCESS OF 9.5 MILLION. IN THIS ATMOSPHERE OF LAWLESSNESS IN THE CITIES MOBS OVERTURNED VEHICLES, SET FIRES, AND DAMAGED PUBLIC AND PRIVATE PROPERTY. THERE WERE THREATS TO SABOTAGE POWER PLANTS, TO DISRUPT TRANSPORTATION AND COMMUNICATIONS FACILITIES. INTELLIGENCE SOURCES INFORMED THE FBI OF PLANS THAT WERE DISCUSSED TO POISON PUBLIC WATER SUPPLIES. AT THIS TIME OF NATIONAL CRISIS, THE GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE BEEN DERELICT IN ITS DUTY HAD IT NOT TAKEN MEASURES TO PROTECT THE FABRIC OF OUR SOCIETY. THE FBI HAS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF INVESTIGATING ALLEGATIONS OF CRIMINAL VIOLATIONS AND GATHERING INTELLIGENCE REGARDING THREATS TO THE COUNTRY'S SECURITY. BECAUSE OF THE VIOLENT ACTIONS OF THE LEADERSHIP OF THE NEW LEFT, FBI OFFICIALS CONCLUDED THAT SOME ADDITIONAL

EFFORT MUST BE MADE TO NEUTRALIZE AND DISRUPT THIS REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT. THIS EFFORT WAS CALLED THE 'COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM - NEW LEFT' OR 'COINTELPRO-NEW LEFT.' WHILE THERE IS NO WAY TO MEASURE THE EFFECT OF THE FBI'S ATTEMPTS AT COUNTERSUBVERSION, I BELIEVE THAT IT DID HAVE SOME IMPACT ON THE CRISIS AT THAT TIME. NOW, IN THE CONTEXT OF A DIFFERENT ERA WHERE PEACE HAS RETURNED TO THE COLLEGE CAMPUSES AND REVOLUTIONARY FORCES NO LONGER POSE A MAJOR THREAT TO PEACE AND TRANQUILITY OF OUR CITIES, SOME MAY DEPLORE AND CONDEMN THE FBI'S USE OF A COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM - EVEN AGAINST HOSTILE AND ARROGANT FORCES WHICH OPENLY SOUGHT TO DESTROY THIS NATION. I SHARE THE PUBLIC'S DEEP CONCERN ABOUT THE CITIZEN'S ^{RIGHT TO} PRIVACY AND THE PRESERVATION OF ALL RIGHTS GUARANTEED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION AND BILL OF RIGHTS. I HAVE EXPRESSED THIS CONCERN ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS SINCE BECOMING DIRECTOR OF THE FBI. THE ACTING ATTORNEY GENERAL AND I HAVE DISCUSSED THIS SITUATION, AND WE BOTH AGREED THAT AN EVALUATION OF FBI REACTIONS IN NATIONAL SECURITY EMERGENCIES ALREADY UNDER WAY SHOULD BE CONTINUED. I PLAN TO MAKE A FULL REPORT TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL. WHILE SUCH A COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM MAY

NOT BE THE ANSWER, THERE MUST BE SOME EFFECTIVE WAY FOR THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO MEET THE CHALLENGE POSED BY THOSE WHO WILL USE ANY MEANS TO FOMENT REVOLUTION. MR. BORK AND I BOTH FEEL THAT PERHAPS ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION IS REQUIRED, AND THIS IS BEING GIVEN THOROUGH STUDY. ~~WE MUST CAREFULLY DEFINE FBI RESPONSIBILITIES~~ ~~4-62, 1-75, 4817-26, 3-118, 4309, 8-19, 8583~~ AND AUTHORITY SO THAT WE CAN CONTINUE TO FULFILL THE FBI'S OBLIGATIONS TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES."
